Math 100: Orientation Assignment – Syllabus Quiz

Curran/Fuson/Jensen – 10 points

Name __________________________________

Important: This quiz is due by Midnight on Friday, January 28, 2011. You may print a hard copy, complete it, and then hand-deliver it to the online math office in FL2-239 during any regularly scheduled support hours, or you can simply email the 10 answers to your instructor. If you choose this eco-friendly option, be sure to make just the phrase “Math 100 syllabus quiz” the subject of your email, and make the content of your email just the letters in proper order. Oh, and why not put a single space between the fifth and sixth answers. Your instructor will "thank you" in a confirmation email within a few days. Absolutely no late quizzes will be accepted.

Please circle your Math 100 instructor's name:  Curran  Fuson  Jensen

Directions: Circle the best response for each. Before answering these 10 questions, carefully read the following:

a) The course syllabus at the syllabus link in CourseCompass and…

   A. Monday           B. Tuesday           C. Wednesday            D. Thursday          E. Friday

4) With the understanding that, from a grading standpoint, a make-up and a retake are regarded as the same thing, and that the final exam cannot be made up, how many regular exams do you have the privilege of either making up because you missed it or retaking because you received an unsatisfactory score?
   A. none               B. one               C. two               D. three               E. as many as you wish.

5) What is the penalty applied to a make-up exam or a retake?
   A. There is no penalty.   B. 5%          C. 10%           D. 15%          E. 20%

6) How much time should you allow to complete an exam?
   A. 0.5 hrs               B. 1.0 hrs               C. 1.5 hrs               D. 2 hrs               E. 2.5 hrs
7) Which statement is false?

A. You can expect some test questions to involve concepts for which there is no practice in the online homework portion of the course, but for which there is practice in the suggested bookwork portion of the course.

B. There is no online work assigned for Chapter 3, but regular textbook work is strongly recommended.

C. A make-up exam or retake exam must be taken prior to the deadline for the next exam.

D. If you do not complete an online homework set with at least 80% accuracy, you will receive a 0.

E. Calculators are allowed in this course.

8) Which online homework score will be converted to a score of 0, since it isn’t at least 80%?

A. 25/30       B. 40/50       C. 17/20       D. 31/40       E. 52/60

9) Which statement is false?

A. If you submit a score of 50/70 for a set of online homework exercises, it will get converted to a 0.

B. For every chapter covered in the course, including the last (which is chapter 3, to be done between the last test and the final exam), regular textbook exercises are provided, and even though it’s not required that you turn these in, completing every single one of them is always strongly recommended.

C. If you retake a test and get a lower score than you did on the original test, the lower score will count.

D. Some prerequisite material such as fractions and decimals will be incorporated into exams.

E. You cannot take an exam prior to its deadline.

10) Which statement is false?

A. You can continue to retry an online homework exercise until you get it correct.

B. Communication with the instructor is done either by email or in person during designated hours.

C. You need to show ID before taking an exam.

D. You can continue to retry an online quiz exercise until you get it correct.

E. To do well in this course, you should expect to spend a minimum of 5 hours per week to replace lecture time. This includes reading and understanding the text, and seeking online or in person support help when needed. For the purposes of retention and preparation for exams, at the very least, an additional 10 hours per week should be invested doing homework and studying.
