English as a Second Language (ESL)

ESL 37 Novice-High Integrated Reading and Writing

| Units: | 6 |
| Hours: | 108 hours LEC |
| Prerequisite: | ESLR 20 (Novice Reading) and ESLW 20 (Novice Writing) with grades of "C" or better, or equivalent skills demonstrated through the assessment process. |
| Catalog Date: | January 1, 2020 |

This course focuses on learning academic reading and writing skills at the novice-high level, with an emphasis on vocabulary, reading comprehension, and the writing process. Students will develop simple and compound sentence control and will practice writing paragraphs with a clear beginning, middle, and end. This course is part of the reading and writing sequence which prepares ESL students to take college courses leading to a certificate, degree, and/or transfer.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- employ a variety of basic reading strategies to understand and respond to short simple fiction and nonfiction texts.
- write focused paragraphs, of at least 100 words each, using basic topics covered in the course, with a clear beginning, middle, and end.
- recognize, use, and acquire vocabulary with correct spelling as presented in the course.
- demonstrate the use of basic writing and formatting conventions such as punctuation, capitalization, margins, indentations, spelling, and legible handwriting.
- demonstrate the use of simple, compound, and complex sentences.
- apply basic steps in the writing process, including prewriting, writing, editing, and revision.

ESL 47 Intermediate-Low Integrated Reading and Writing

| Units: | 6 |
| Hours: | 108 hours LEC |
| Prerequisite: | ESL 37 with a grade of "C" or better; or ESLR 30 and ESLW 30 with a grade of "C" or better; or, for students not previously enrolled in ESL courses within the Los Rios District, placement through the assessment process. |
| Catalog Date: | January 1, 2020 |

ESL 47 is an integrated reading and writing course for English language learners at the intermediate level. In preparation for academic writing, students build skills in pre-writing, learn to write strong paragraphs, and practice the basics of essay structure. Students also build academic reading skills and vocabulary. With the information gathered through readings, students begin to use academic content to supplement their ideas in writing. This course is part of the reading and writing sequence, which prepares ESL students to take college courses leading to a certificate, degree, and/or transfer.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- employ a variety of reading strategies to understand, analyze, and respond to short fiction and nonfiction texts.
- recognize, use, and acquire vocabulary presented in the course in discussions and written work.
- write simple summaries and paraphrases.
- apply the writing process to compose, revise, and edit academic paragraphs and multi-paragraph compositions of at least 150 words.
ESL 55 Intermediate-Mid Integrated Reading and Writing

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- employ a variety of reading strategies to read, understand, analyze, and respond to medium-length fiction and non-fiction readings.
- use vocabulary acquired in the course in discussions and written work with accurate spelling.
- analyze, summarize, and paraphrase basic concepts from readings; use these concepts to generate ideas for writing.
- interpret writing prompts and respond to them using the writing process (prewriting, writing, revising, and editing).
- write well-developed compositions in and out of class using selected rhetorical modes, including at least one opinion essay or multi-paragraph composition.
- apply level-appropriate grammar and usage patterns in writing and identify and correct grammatical errors through editing.

ESL 90 Language Skills Laboratory

This is a laboratory course designed to enable students to focus on specific English language skills through interaction with tutors, faculty, and computer software programs. This class is recommended for ESL students at any level who need further, focused attention to very specific skills including, but not limited to pronunciation, grammar, vocabulary development and spelling. Students may enter the course at any time during the first 9 weeks of the semester. This course is graded on a pass/no pass basis.
Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- identify and improve on one or more weak linguistic skills.
- recognize error patterns in English.
- recognize and apply key terms and concepts covered in class.
- demonstrate the use of skills acquired to improve performance in other coursework.

This integrated-skills course focuses on strengthening academic reading and writing skills at the intermediate-high level. The emphasis is on vocabulary expansion, comprehension, inference and analysis, and developing the ability to respond to readings through a variety of essay assignments. Students will use critical thinking skills to understand, paraphrase, summarize, and respond orally or online and in writing to ideas expressed in fiction and non-fiction readings. They will refine their ability to control a range of grammatical structures. Students will be assigned a minimum of 4,000 words including in-class essays and a final exam. This course is part of the reading-writing sequence which prepares ESL students to take college courses leading to a certificate, degree, and/or transfer.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- use active reading strategies to distinguish main ideas from supporting details and to analyze, infer, and predict ideas in fiction and non-fiction readings.
- summarize and paraphrase important concepts and/or passages from readings.
- read and analyze a level-appropriate novel and respond orally and in writing to aspects of the novel.
• use an expanded variety of academic and idiomatic vocabulary in discussions and in reading and writing assignments.

• compose well-developed, organized, unified multi-paragraph essays which show critical thinking and which respond to readings.

• apply level-appropriate grammar knowledge and usage to both reading and writing assignments to read longer and more complex passages and detect and correct grammatical errors through editing.

• discuss U.S. academic and cultural expectations.
